School Messenger

Information

Please keep in mind that we are using School Messenger for school informational calls, as well as weather updates and school closings. When you see a call coming from the school number, please take the time to listen to it. If you miss the call, it will leave a message, so please check your messages before calling the school to find out if someone has called you. If you want to add more numbers to receive the notice via voice or text, you can make additions in your Synergy account. A message was sent out on Friday, September 1st in regards to the first day of school. If you didn't receive a call, please check your Synergy account to make sure your phone number is updated and correct.
