Missing You

If you want me I will be there,
but will you be there for me?
If you need me I will help you,
but will you help me?
If you are dying I will help you,
but will you help me?
If you are hungry I will feed you,
but will you feed me?
If you are short of air I will save you,
but will you save me?
If you are in need of love I will love you,
but will you love me?
If you want your coffee I will get it for you,
but will you get it for me?
If you are embarrassed I will tell you it is alright,
but will you tell me?
If you are hurt I will heal you,
but will you heal me?
I will do anything for you, but would you?

Andrew R. Voeller

"Drew"

Born to Jackie and Jason Voeller, October 15, 1988
Born into Eternal Life, December 6, 2003

Andrew Voeller, or as his family and friends would call him, Drew, was a farm boy at heart. He drove combine, worked out in the shop, and he had a passion for being outside and learning everything he could.

He was a talented young man when it came to the knowledge of computers and his academics. He had a special spot in his heart and love of his dog, Babe.

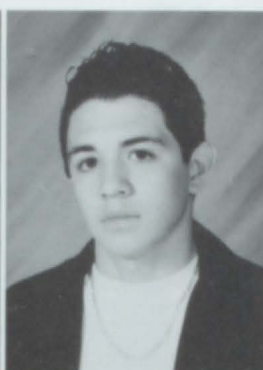

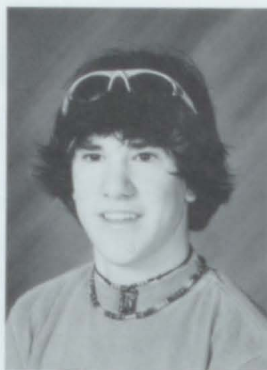

Drew's character was one of an easy-going, laid-back young man.

Patience was a quality that everybody admired in Drew. His witty sense of humor put a smile on everyone's face. Drew was a person like no other. His family and friends will never forget how many lives Drew has touched with his loving heart, kind words, and his gentle touch.

By Drew's cousin, Michelle Voeller

Administration

Our administration is composed of Shirley Moger, our Superintendent/Principal; Nancy Newcomb, the Elementary Coordinator; and Mark Fritz, our school's Athletic Director. Mrs. Moger runs the high school end of the building, which is comprised of the 7th-12th grades. On top of that, she still performs her duties as the district's superintendent. Ms. Newcomb's job involves running the elementary end of the school, composed of the K-6th grades. Mark Fritz coordinates all of our school's athletic events, as his dignified title would indicate.

Our district's school board has seven members: Bryan Stortroen, Harlow Grove, Ervin Vigness, Jon Carlson, Julie Cakebread, James Bowling, Todd Evenson, and Shirley Moger. The school board meets on a monthly basis. They set policies, academic and disciplinary, for the school district. Also, they work out a budget for the district for each upcoming year. Their jobs are vital to the function of our school district, and discussing each and every aspect of their jobs would take a while.

Our homecoming court poses for the flashing cameras after the exciting night comes to an end, kicking off a great week!

Brenda's smile shines as she is crowned homecoming queen.

The boys are excited as Seain is chosen as homecoming king.

Our enchanting homecoming queen and king, Brenda and Seain.

Rose, Brenda and Amy beam with pride after receiving runner-up silver medals at the Minnesota State volleyball tournament.

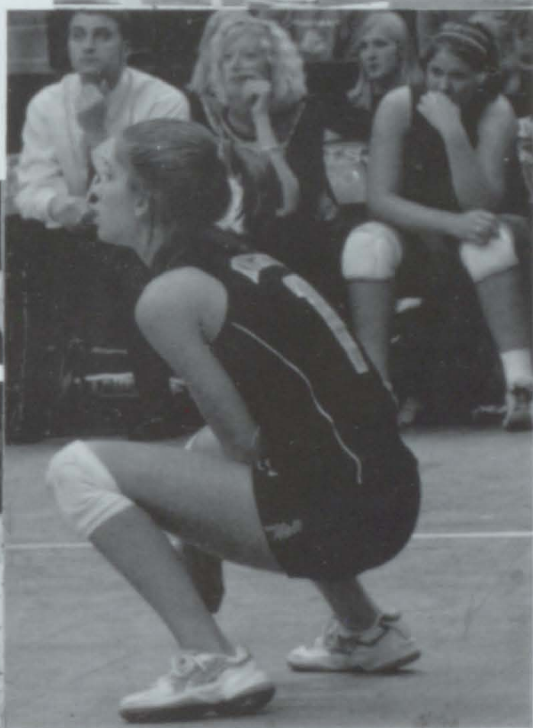

Lady Knights gleefully pile up for a picture after the conquering of the defending state champs, Fosston.

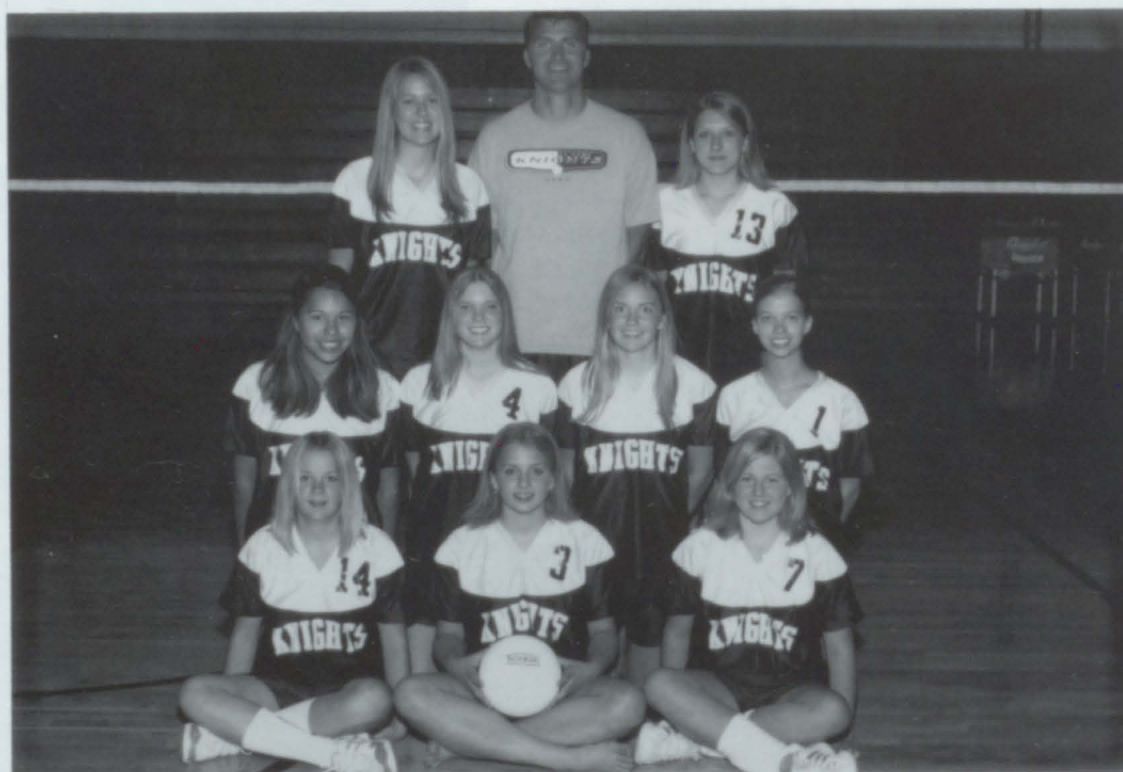

Volleyball State

The KNIGHTS volleyball team ended their season with a spectacular finish at the Minnesota State tournament by placing 2nd, losing to number one ranked team, Bethlehem Academy. The Volleyball team had a successful season, ending with a 29-5 record. Some highlights included: 3rd place at Ada tourney, 2nd place at Brooklyn Park tourney, and 3rd place at Perham. The girls took the conference championship after defeating Fosston, 3-2. In tournament play, the girls captured the sub-section title by beating Kittson Central 3-1, and went on to take SECTION champs by defeating Fosston, for the second time this season, 3-2. The girls had a great showing at the state tournament. They defeated Carlton, 3-1 and Buffalo-Lake Hector, a third ranked team in state, 3-2. With their successful playing, they ended up in the championship game! Two players made the All-State Tournament team: Brenda Slyt and Anna Tinkham. Both of these players, along with all of the other players got to state by working hard and playing well as a team!

C-F Knights Go to State

The Knights played the Goodhue Wildcats in Williams, Arena this year, after qualifying for state tournaments at UMC. The Knights played valiantly, but Victory was not in the cards. The Knights lost to the Wildcats, ending their spectacular season. Casey Hrabik, sole varsity player, said, "It was the experience of a lifetime. We had a lot of interesting things happen to us. It was exciting, and Williams was fun too."

HUSTLE

The Climax-Fisher Knights amazed everyone with their excellent season, traveling to State Tournaments in Minneapolis in March and winning games left and right. Varsity Head Coach Mr. Ivan Hirst says, "We had a super year! The boys played together and played hard. They hustled all the time and were a fun bunch of players to watch. I am very proud of this year's squad. We capped off a great season with a trip to the state tournament. I had a blast this season. Great Job Knights!"

MUSIC AT CLIMAX

By Ms. Forsberg

We have had a great year this year in band and in choir. Both groups have worked hard and put on a GREAT Holiday concert and Spring concert. This year we offered a 7:30 a.m. Voice class. This year the girls in the Voice class attended solo contest in East Grand Forks. Shayla Chapman, Kara Nesvig, and Emily Moen each received an excellent rating and senior Brenda Slyt received a superior rating at the contest. We also attended the vocal ensemble contest, also in East Grand Forks. Alysia Larson, Ali Tweten, and Abby Neil joined us and out of the two performances we gave we received one excellent rating and one superior rating. I am so proud of the students in voice, band and choir this year. They all worked so hard and hopefully were rewarded by the progress that each of the groups and individuals made. Thanks for a wonderful first year of teaching!

The Climax FFA Chapter had another successful year, sending twelve members to State Contests, sending their Talent Team to Ada's Spring Banquet where they placed third, and learning about agriculture as well. Jeff Bjorge placed first in state in the Ag. Mechanics division, and he will compete in National Contests in Louisville, Kentucky.

2003-2004 FFA Officers were Seain Nichols (President), Chris Stout (Vice President), Ali Tweten (Secretary), Carlos Sanchez (Treasurer), Brad Thoreson (Sentinel), Leah Stortroen (Reporter), and Jeff Bjorge (Officer at Large).

The Greenhand Award, given to freshman, "Greenhands" was awarded to Monica Sanchez, who placed second in Regional Creed Speaking Contests. Chris Stout won the Chapter Star in Agribusiness honor, and Seain Nichols received the Star Chapter Farmer prize.
