SENIORS

CLASS OF '69

THE SENIORS' FAREWELL

The end of our Senior year has come
 For us in the Class of 69.
 But we're not done, we've just begun.
 For we have gained twelve years of knowledge
 With which we'll pull ourselves upward.
 For there are higher goals to be reached in life,
 And we shall strive towards them with all our might.
 For twelve years we've been a class -
 Studying, playing, and growing up together.
 As a class, we've built a magnificent prom
 And triumphed with our Senior float.
 But while we've formed a united class,
 We each have been ourselves.
 For we believe that we should be
 The persons we truly want to be.
 And thus, our class has shown "individuality."
 When tomorrow comes, we'll be on our own,
 Each following his own life's course.
 But today we twenty-six as the Senior Class
 Bid you all "Farewell."

Class Motto: "Not Finishing, Just Beginning"
 Class Flower: Yellow Rose
 Class Colors: Sunburst Gold and Velvet Brown

The Vikings basketball season seemed long; with more loses than victories. However, the season record was forgotten when the boys upset the highly favored Crookston Pirates in the first game of the district tournament.

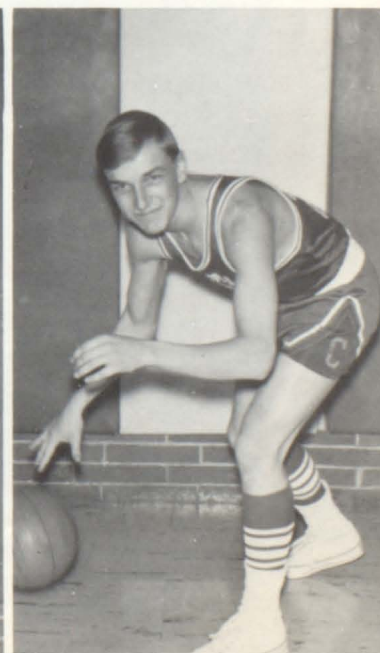

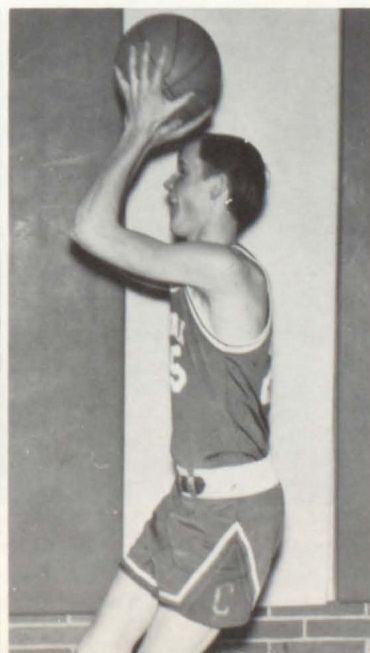

The Vikings joined Thief River Falls, Crookston, East Grand Forks, and Warren to form a new conference called the "Big Five". Although smaller in numbers than most of the schools in the district, the Climax Vikings have always held their own with the larger schools and have been seeded in district tournament play. Andy Muhonen made the first five of the coaches all conference team and was named the schools Athlete of the Year.

The Climax Vikings Baseball Team had a most successful season. After winning the Polar Conference they won their first game in the District Tournament at Climax by defeating Red Lake Falls. In the semi-finals the Vikings were defeated by Thief River Falls. The game was a pitchers battle with Andy Muhonen hurling a near perfect game for eight innings and the score tied 1-1, only to lose it in the ninth.

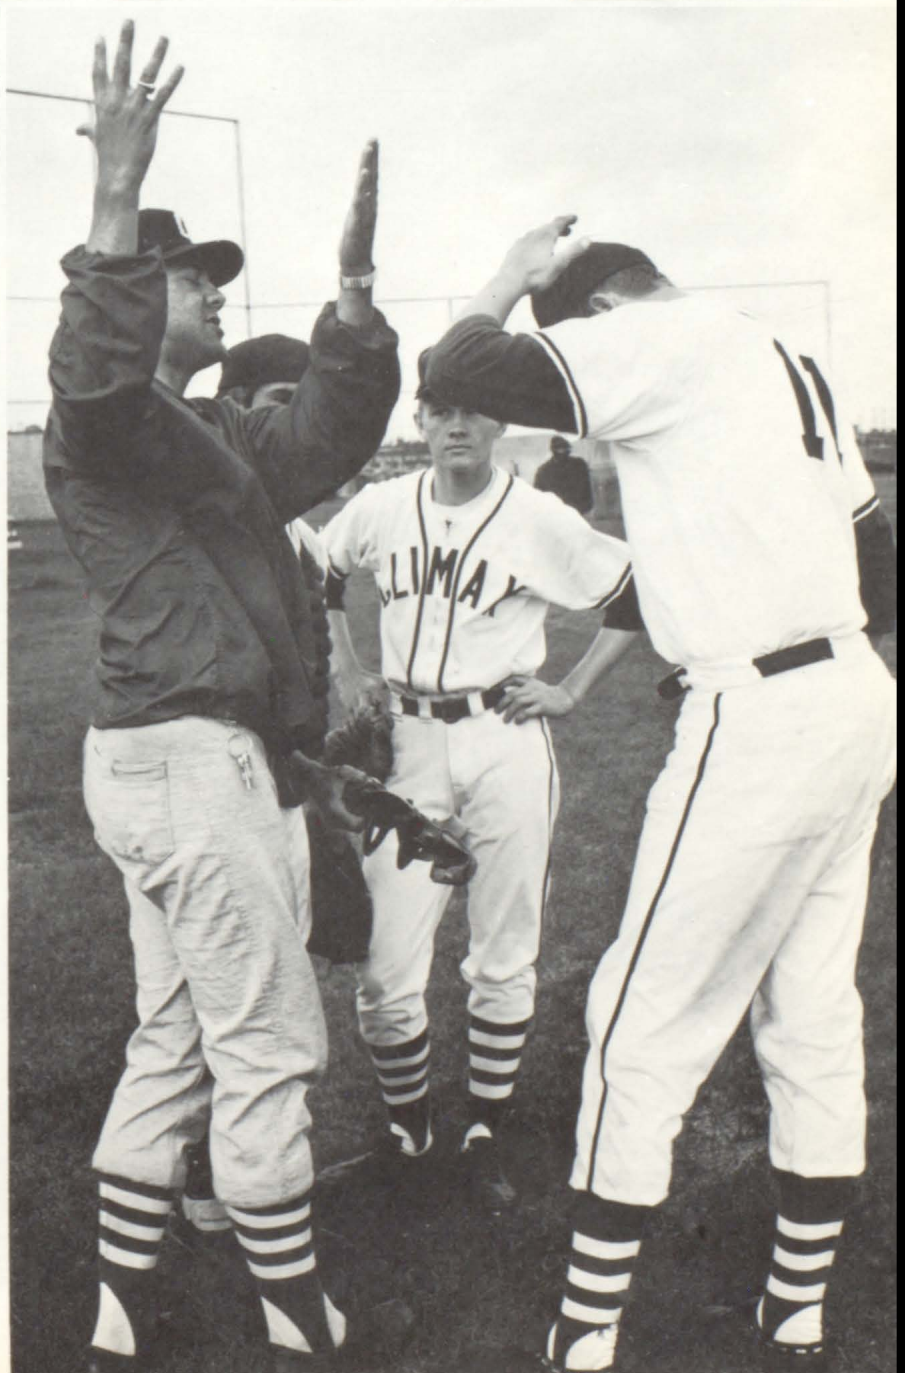

In addition to Andy the mound duties were adequately cared for by Jim Mauritson and Owen Larson. The catching duties were well handled by senior Ken Mickelson. Playing first base were David and Arvin Palm, second Wayne Kobbervig and Mark Smith, short Steve Paulsrud and Andy, third DeWayne Lee, and Jamie Tronnes. The outfield of Mauritson, Butch Amundson, Rodney Wegge, and Darrell Larson played excellent defensive ball.

Conference Champs

The Vikings are pictured as they played Warren in the final game of the regular season and defeated them for the Polar Conference championship with a 10-0 record. Congratulations to Coach Baum and the Vikings.
