We the 1987 yearbook staff put on our painting clothes and got out our old paint brushes and set out to create this year's yearbook. We got a little sloppy and carried away with the paint at times but here is the finished product. We hope that you have as much fun looking through it as we did putting it together.

Sincerely,
The 1987 yearbook staff.

 Traci was escorted by Deveryn Malmlov. Her court consisted of Marie DeLaGarza escorted by Trenton Evenson and Janet Nelson escorted by David Allard. Jayne Abentroth and Justin Larson were the crown and robe bearers. Coronation was the first event of Homecoming week.

The week was filled with activities that involved the students and faculty alike. It opened with hippy day. Tuesday was black and gray day to show support for the Knights. Wednesday was dude day and the Homecoming games were played last hour. The games were roll of the day, in which a person rolls a tootsie roll across the floor on their hands and knees. Race of your life was a wheel barrow race. Then there was splash. This game consisted of two people from each class. They played catch with water balloons. After each catch, you take a step back. Thursday was Hawaiian day and the week ended with dress-up day.

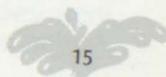

This week was also very good for the volleyball girls. They came out with three out of three wins over Twin Valley, Sacred Heart and Warren.

Friday night was the Homecoming game against Plummer. We won by a score of 26-20.

Homecoming week ended with the Homecoming dance in the gym from 9:00 to 12:30.

The volleyball team, once again, had a very successful season. The girls' final record was 16-7.

The team brought home several trophies over the season. They took third in the Alvarado Invitational, second in the Plummer Invitational, and third in the District Tournament. The girls were also runners-up in the Polar conference.

For the first time in history, the district had an All-Tournament team, and to be chosen to this team would be a great honor.

Climax was fortunate enough to have 2 girls chosen to this team. They were Janet Nelson and Stacey Vettern-honorable mention.

The Vikings were also happy to have 3 girls chosen to the All-Conference team. They were seniors Renee Allard and Janet Nelson and junior Michelle Vettern.

A Splash Of Football

"A sleeping giant has awakened," a newspaper reporter wrote when describing the way Knight's season went. After losing two of three games in the beginning, the Knights did awake and entered the playoffs and in the first round played Ulen-Hittendahl. The Knights then faced rival Norman County West and lost in a defensive struggle eight to zero, winding up with a successful seven and three win-loss record.

The team had six nominations for the all-conference team and all six were selected. They were David Allard, Bob Hanson, Paul Metzger, Dana Sorenson, Noel Haake, and Darryl Sorenson. Paul Metzger was also chosen the lineman of the year for the conference and later was chosen to the all-state nine-man team.

Sheila Boe was crowned 1986-87 Carnival Queen on November 21, 1986. She was escorted by Chad Erickson.

Other candidates were Elizabeth Gordon, escorted by Danny Boe from the senior class, Stephanie Gray, escorted by Dan Lindgren from the junior class, and Angie Hamre, escorted by John Wegge from the sophomore class. Last year's queen was Kristi Englestad, escorted by Joe Dufner.

Prior to the coronation was the program and the games.

The program started with the kinder garten singing two songs. The first, second and third grade students were up next and they sang three songs: "Gussy the Goosey Gobbler", "My Little Red Wagon" and "A Snap, Clap, and Tap Song."

The fourth, fifth, and sixth grade students sang "Friends Forever" and "Go With a Song in Your Heart."

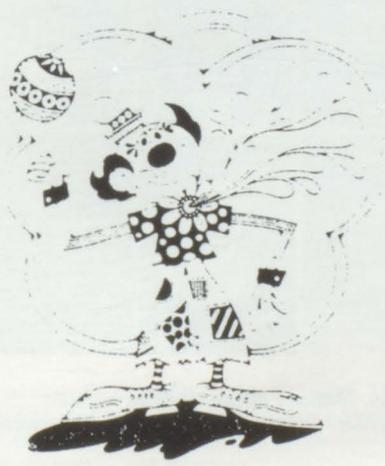

Four eighth grade girls, Nichelle Larson, Erica Nesvig, Nicole Larson, and Patti Durkin performed two lip syncs: "My Boyfriend's Back" and "Surfin' U.S.A."

The Climax High School girls ensemble performed a favorite of many people: "Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree." The boys ensemble performed "Get a Job."

Junior Stephanie Gray performed a piano solo entitled "Fur Elise."

The cake walk was replaced by three booths this year. One was the pen draw and the other two were sponsored by the Climax Education Association. They were the face painting booth and one that made a big splash, the teacher-dunking booth. The funds from the two teacher-sponsored booths are going towards a scholarship that is also sponsored by the teachers of Climax.

National Education Week was November 16-22. Our faculty did a number of activities to try and raise money for an education scholarship.

The week started out by having a balloon release for the Elementary kids. The kids went outside and released their bright blue and white balloons.

Tuesday there was a mock school day for parents. This gave the parents a chance to see what their kids put up with everyday. The busses went out on routes to pick up our parents. Some of us figured maybe that was a way of talking our parents into buying us cars instead of taking the bus.

Wednesday there was a student knowledge bowl. The winning team consisted of Todd Palm, Marie De La Garza, Dan Lindgren, Gwenny Moen, John Wegge, and Johnathon Chaffee.

The juniors and seniors then played the faculty and the seniors won. Way to go seniors!

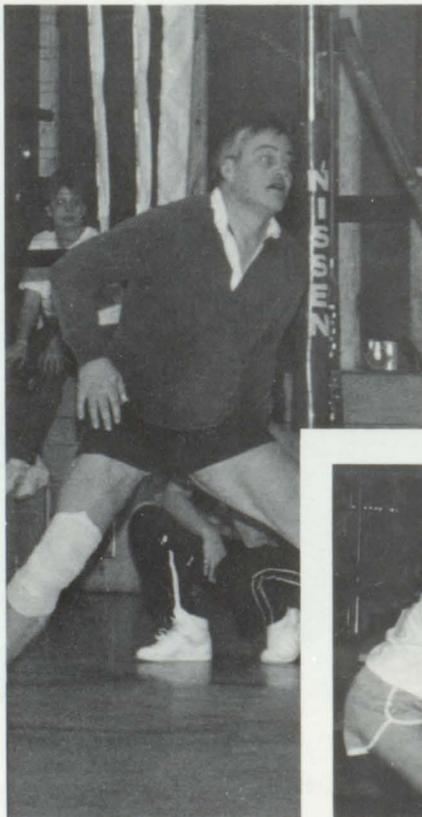

Thursday night there was a Volleyball game where the faculty took on the juniors and senior classes. The teachers were definitely entertaining. They came wearing Hawaiian shorts and "tried" to play Volleyball. They were good sports and we all had a super time. The senior class lost in 3 games and the juniors won in 3 games. Way to go juniors!

Then, to top the week off, the faculty had a dunking booth and a face painting booth at the carnival.

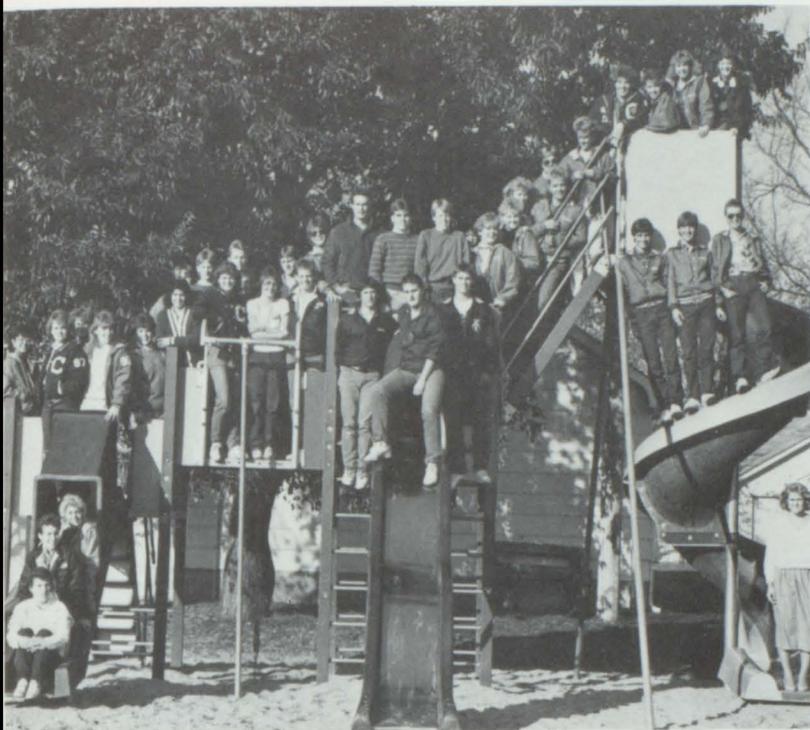

Oh, by the way, Mr. Morken maybe you should try to be a little bit nicer to your kids, after all they do get you back. Naomi, Mr. Morken's daughter, ran up and pushed the lever and watched her dad fall into the cold water. Way to go Naomi!

The students really admired the hard work that the faculty put into this week. It turned out to be very successful as the faculty made $350.00 towards the education scholarship.

The Lady Vikings

What you put into something you get out of it. That really seems to be the case for the Lady Vikings. The girls have really worked hard and put a lot of time into basketball this season and it has really paid off.

When compared to last year, one wouldn't even recognize the team. They ended the season with a 4-16 record. They broke a scoring record by scoring 67 points in a single game and won the first round of the District Tournament. This didn't come overnight for the Lady Vikings. The coaches and players all had to put a lot of hard work and dedication into the season, and it paid off.

. . . Snow Week

The cheerleaders sponsored the traditional Snowball dance February 7, 1987, from 8:00 to 12:00. Dean Miller of Soundsation provided the music.

During the week the cheerleaders organized pepfests, games, and made the preparations for the dance.

There were two pepfests. One was on Monday to start the week off and one was on Friday.

During the pepfests the cheerleaders did some of the favorite cheers. The student body selected Shaun Erickson and Renee Allard as their Snowball king and queen. There were contests throughout the week with prizes given to the winners. The following were the contests and winners: M & M's in a jar - Carl Bratager, Nerds in a jar - Miss Pierson, Hearts in a jar - Daniel Dufner, cotton balls in jar - Jeff Buehl.

Some of the other activities they did during the week were the following: Monday - pepfest, Tuesday - hat/lampshade day, Wednesday - back to the future/nerd day, Thursday - sweat day, Friday - dress up/flower day.

The winners for the week were: hat day - John Wegg and Michelle Vetter, nerd day - Benji Carlson, Corey Gundreson, and Renee Allard, sweat day - Dan Lindgren and Heather Gorden, dress up day - Kenny Landgaard and Marlys Stortroen.

The people who made Snow Week successful were the kids and faculty. Everyone participated in Snow Week to make it a great success.

Science Department

From Chickens To Toothpick-Bridges To The Annual Science Fair

The Science room was busy this year, having everything from chickens to tooth pick bridges.

Twenty-eight of the thirty-one chicks incubated survived the chicken ordeal at the Climax High School. This is just one of the many weird things that happened in our science room. In addition to hatching chickens there was the annual Science Fair.

The 1987 Science Fair winners were Korey Gunderson and Jayson Pinna in the seventh grade. First place in the eighth grade were Chris Peterson and Ryan Sedler. Jason Aanenson took first in the ninth grade. LaRissa Peterson took first on her project for the tenth grade, and placing first for the juniors and seniors were Randy Sondrol and Tyler Grove.

Heidi Heden placed second along with Erick Peterson, Patti Durkin, and Nicole Larson. Nikki Larson, Erica Nesvig, Steve Bergh, and Brad Chaffee took third. Chad and Shane Erickson took second and Bobbi Jo Roberts and Beth Semeling got third. Michon Spokely and Holly Thoreson came in second while Angie Hamre and Naomi Keeney, Susie Nichols and Gwenny Moen took third for their classes.

All of the above students went to Moorhead to the Regional Science Fair on March 14.

Four girls, Liz Gordon, Trista Hornung, Janet Nelson, and Michelle Vetter also wrote science papers that were sent to Moorhead to be judged.

On February 24th, five Climax High School seniors, Todd Palm, David Allard, Ken Landgaard, Jim Landgaard, and Dan Boe participated in the Tooth-Pick Bridge Contest in the Moorhead Center Mall. They did not place, but their tooth-pick bridge held about seventy pounds.

Splash Of FFA

The F.F.A. was full of controversy this past year. The chapter didn't have a summer program, so the state advisor wouldn't let the chapter compete in regional contests. Finally, the school district approved a summer program and the chapter was able to compete.

This was good that the chapter was able to compete because three teams went to state. Two of the three teams got first place in the regional contest. The poultry team won a first. Members were John Dufner, Trenton Evenson, Ken Landgaard, and Kraig Ostgaard. The other first place team was the floriculture team. Team Members were David Allard, Larissa Peterson, Angie Hamre, and Derek Heden. The nursery landscaping team won third. The team members were Jim Landgaard, Dev Malmlov, Dan Boe, and Randy Sandrol. John Dufner also won first place in Extemporeaneous Speaking.

At the state level the poultry team earned a silver ribbon. The floriculture team got a bronze ribbon. The nursery landscaping didn't quite earn a ribbon. John Dufner got second place in the state in extemporaneous speaking. Also, Susie Nichols earned a bronze ribbon for salesmanship.

Climax also had four state farmer degree recipients. The recipients were John Dufner, Shaun Erickson, Trenton Evenson, and Ken Landgaard. This is the highest degree an F.F.A. member can get. They received a pin at the banquet in Bloomington at the Carlton Restaurant.

Early this fall the junior high F.H.A.'ers had the opportunity to attend a junior high leadership rally in Fertile. As a part of the rally there was a lip sync contest. Nichelle Larson, Patti Durkin, Erica Nesvig, and Nicole Larson made up the team representing our F.H.A. They received first place at the rally.

On October 31, 1986, the F.H.A. sponsored their second annual Halloween Dance. Music and lights were provided by Instant Request. The dance wasn't their big money making venture, but there was a good turn out and everyone had a good time.

The fundraisers the organization did were decorating and selling Valentine cookies and selling cookbooks. They made about one hundred dollars from selling cookies and one hundred and sixty dollars from the cookbooks.

In March the chapter attended the Mid-Winter meeting in Warren. Nichelle Larson and Erica Nesvig received a silver rating on their Action Activity Event, creating food for small children. Patti Durkin and Nicole Larson received an honorable mention rating on their Action Activity Event, making a nutritious snack. Heidi Heden and Lisa Peterson also received an honorable mention rating. Heidi and Lisa showed how to use a food processor. Veronica Michael received the only gold rating awarded to Climax. Veronica received a gold rating at the district level and a silver rating at the state level on her action activity event in the job interview category.

Give My Regards To Broadway Hit It Eddie!

Lights, camera, action . . . and on went the 1987 play, "Give My Regards to Broadway." The play involved 21 kids from grades 9-12. This years production was a musical so it had many songs and dance numbers. It was really a different type of play then we're use to, but there was never a dull moment. If it wasn't the gangsters chasing Legs Ruby (Benji Carlson) it was the big star Mona Monroe (Alyson Nesvig) visiting the theatre. Whatever was happening it surely kept the audience interested because you could never tell what was going to happening next!

This play, like all plays, took a lot of hard work and dedication from many people. The directors, Debbie Dale and Jeff Iverson did a lot of work as well as the stage crew which was composed of Trenton and Naomi Evenson and Ken Landgaard. The lighting crew also helped out a lot. They were Jim and Ken Landgaard, Randy Spokely and Chuck Hornung. Last but not least was the orchestra, consisting of Stephanie Gray, Ryan Sedler, Trenton Evenson, Holly Thoreson, John Dufner, Beth Semeling, La Rissa Peterson, Julie Aanenson and Deb Dale.

Prom

The Junior class worked very hard this year to put on the prom. The class started decorating the week before prom. They came in at 3:30, worked until 5:00 o'clock, took a break for supper and showed up at the school again at 6:00 o'clock. The second shift lasted until 9:00 o'clock. The class put in 18 hours decorating the gym. The dance was a complete success, as everybody had a good time.

Early this fall, the 1986-1987 yearbook staff sold ads to the area merchants. We went to the towns of Shelly, Nielsville, Climax, Crookston, and the Grant Forks, East Grand Forks area. We collected approximately one thousand dollars.

It costs about three thousand dollars to make 100 copies of your yearbook. Combining ad sales with the selling price of fifteen dollars per annual makes it difficult to reach our budget.

We try to keep the annual as reasonably priced as possible in an effort to break even. We hope that everyone understands that this project is not a money making venture but rather a service to our community.

The staff would like to take this time to thank all of the businesses who helped support us. It is very much appreciated.
