If a Man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or faraway. Henry David Thoreau

We have worked together and played together, but now we face the world as individuals. We grew through our years together and yet we will be always together...in our minds.

THE MASTER'S TOUCH

'Twas battered and scarred, and the auctioneer
Thought it scarcely worth his while
To waste much time on the old violin,
But he held it up with a smile:
"What am I bidden, good folks," he cried,
"Who'll start the bidding for me?"
"A dollar, a dollar;" then two, Only two?"
Two dollars and who'll make it three?
Three dollars, once; three dollars, twice;
Going for three..." But no,
From the room, far back, a gray-haired man
Came forward and picked up the bow:
Then, wiping the dust from the old violin,
And tightening the loosened strings,
He played a melody pure and sweet
As a caroling angel sings.

NATIONAL Honor Society

NEW MEMBERS

The music ceased, and the auctioneer
With a voice that was quiet and low
Said: "What am I bid for the old violin?"
And he held it up with the bow.
"A thousand dollars, and who'll make it three?
Three thousand once, three thousand twice,
And going and gone," said he.
The people cheered, but some of them cried,
"We do not quite understand
What changed its worth." Swift came the reply:
"The touch of the Master's hand."
And many a man with life out of tune,
And battered and scarred with sin,
Is auctioned cheap to the thoughtless crowd,
Much like the old violin.
A "mess of pottage," a glass of wine;
A game, and he travels on.
He's "going" once and "going" twice,
He's "going" and almost "gone"
But the Master comes, and the foolish crowd
Never can quite understand
The worth of a soul and the change that's wrought
By the touch of the Master's hand.
